

Moral of silent Mary..

HAS anybody noticed how silent Mary Whitehouse has been over the Sex Pistols' outburst on TV and the business of Pauline's Quirkes?

It seems that we don't really need Mrs. Whitehouse to protest on our behalf at what may be considered undesirable or unwanted TV shows.

The fact is that if the public feel strongly enough to take offence, they can manage their own affairs very well—by sheer force of numbers.—Mrs. J. Read, Watford, Herts.

take the same v
Those who don't w
to watch this sort
show should keep t
viewing to Playschool
something similar.—J
S., London, W.11.

■ AS this year's Chr
mas holiday exte
over several days, we very concerned about
well-being of cats kept business premises. Pro provision must be m
for them.

Domestic cat own
going away for the h
day should arrange
their pets to be v
cared for. As well