

No to 'Pistols'

CONCERT planned for tonight at the University of East Anglia, Norwich, by the punk rock group, Sex Pistols, whose TV show on Wednesday started a major row, has been cancelled.

TRAFFIC warden (49), who is also a reserve policeman, was shot dead in Dungannon, Co. Tyrone, today, shortly after showing a group of children across the road.

DISC JOCKEY Tony Blackburn, who has been confined to bed for the past two weeks with mumps, will be back on Radio 1 next week.

INTERNATIONAL airlift of

IN BRIEF

relief supplies to thousands of freezing victims of last week's earthquake in eastern Turkey resumed today after being halted by bad weather.

JAPAN says she will accept the E.E.C. proposals for talks on curbing her share of world shipbuilding.

VAL DOONICAN did not appear at a Birmingham theatre restaurant show last night because of a back injury.