

Bus ran over the legs of a woman's legs: driver fined

A BUS ran over the legs of an elderly woman after she had fallen from the middle doors while getting off, Newcastle magistrates were told.

A policeman said Mrs Jane Poppleton of Vale House, Newcastle, was taken to hospital with quite serious injuries after the accident at the junction of Jesmond Road and Osborne Avenue.

Farm fence taken for kids' bonfires

DOX T ask chicken farmer Henry Eggleston to fork out a penny for the same reason and was asked several hundred pounds because some fencing has been taken for bonfires.

Four fathers "ripped wooden posts on the fence at his 'chicken farm' which he bought for £1000. The fence was taken for a chicken farm and had been taken from the farm. The fence was taken for a chicken farm and had been taken from the farm.

Mr Morris said there was a total of 100 to the fence which was taken from the farm. The fence was taken for a chicken farm and had been taken from the farm.

Mr Alan Hutton, accountant at Cranze Farm, said the fence was taken for a chicken farm and had been taken from the farm. The fence was taken for a chicken farm and had been taken from the farm.

Power cut causes swim pool panic

SWIMMING pool attendants fear there could be serious accidents at North-East baths if power cuts continue. There was panic at Wallasey Baths last night when the place was plunged into darkness for 45 minutes.

Pool managers have warned that children could be injured if they were left in the pool without warning due to a power cut. The power was cut for 45 minutes and caused panic among the bathers.

End dentists' dispute—plea

DURHAM watchdogs in HEALTH plan to write to the Health Minister asking him to make it his priority to end a dental dispute which could spread in the region.

The battle is between dentists and the Health Service over expenses for running their clinics. The British Dental Association has told its members that it has no objection to a new system of payment for dental services.

Hoteliers say no to Punk Rock

THERE is no room at the inn for punk rock groups at most of the North's major hotels. Only a handful of managers are prepared to accept bookings from groups like The Clash.

After a meeting of hotel managers in Liverpool it was revealed that most of the area's 10 major hotels had taken a "no" to Punk Rock. The managers of the five bridges Hotel, Gateshead, Mr Roger Newton, said: "We held an informal meeting here and it was clear that only a quarter of us were prepared to take groups on a trial."

Flag day man hits at town's apathy

A FLAG-DAY organizer has hit out at the apathy of townspice. Mr. Joseph Langston was on the streets in Hebburn today collecting for the day.

He said: "I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day. I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day. I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day."

On knees

A woman getting on the bus, Mrs. Margaret Duggan, of Church Street, Mirley Hill, said it was her seat just past the centre door and it was on her knees and I falling out to the driver.

Confusing

Mr. James Bowyer, defending, told the magistrates that the driver could not see through the mirrors at the doors. The driver could not see through the mirrors at the doors.

Oil warning

Berath, a local health officer, has warned the idea that North-East means unlimited wealth for ever more is "absolute poppycock".

Cancelled

The Tribute to Elvis program, billed by Huzert with the New Jersey Express and Ronnie Storm and the Typhoons, which should have been at the City Hall, Newcastle, tomorrow, has been cancelled.

Flag day man hits at town's apathy

A FLAG-DAY organizer has hit out at the apathy of townspice. Mr. Joseph Langston was on the streets in Hebburn today collecting for the day.

He said: "I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day. I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day. I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day."

On knees

A woman getting on the bus, Mrs. Margaret Duggan, of Church Street, Mirley Hill, said it was her seat just past the centre door and it was on her knees and I falling out to the driver.

Confusing

Mr. James Bowyer, defending, told the magistrates that the driver could not see through the mirrors at the doors. The driver could not see through the mirrors at the doors.

Oil warning

Berath, a local health officer, has warned the idea that North-East means unlimited wealth for ever more is "absolute poppycock".

Cancelled

The Tribute to Elvis program, billed by Huzert with the New Jersey Express and Ronnie Storm and the Typhoons, which should have been at the City Hall, Newcastle, tomorrow, has been cancelled.

Flag day man hits at town's apathy

A FLAG-DAY organizer has hit out at the apathy of townspice. Mr. Joseph Langston was on the streets in Hebburn today collecting for the day.

He said: "I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day. I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day. I have been disappointed with the lack of interest in the day."

On knees

A woman getting on the bus, Mrs. Margaret Duggan, of Church Street, Mirley Hill, said it was her seat just past the centre door and it was on her knees and I falling out to the driver.

Confusing

Mr. James Bowyer, defending, told the magistrates that the driver could not see through the mirrors at the doors. The driver could not see through the mirrors at the doors.

Oil warning

Berath, a local health officer, has warned the idea that North-East means unlimited wealth for ever more is "absolute poppycock".

Cancelled

The Tribute to Elvis program, billed by Huzert with the New Jersey Express and Ronnie Storm and the Typhoons, which should have been at the City Hall, Newcastle, tomorrow, has been cancelled.

Vote for more jobs and better houses

MORE jobs and better houses. This is what the Tynes Wear residents have voted for in future plans for the county.

Plans for the Tynes Wear before the county council. The plans for the Tynes Wear before the county council. The plans for the Tynes Wear before the county council.

Vote for more jobs and better houses

MORE jobs and better houses. This is what the Tynes Wear residents have voted for in future plans for the county.

Vote for more jobs and better houses

MORE jobs and better houses. This is what the Tynes Wear residents have voted for in future plans for the county.

Vote for more jobs and better houses

MORE jobs and better houses. This is what the Tynes Wear residents have voted for in future plans for the county.

Vote for more jobs and better houses

MORE jobs and better houses. This is what the Tynes Wear residents have voted for in future plans for the county.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

The party will be held at the Arts Centre. The party will be held at the Arts Centre. The party will be held at the Arts Centre.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

The party will be held at the Arts Centre. The party will be held at the Arts Centre. The party will be held at the Arts Centre.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Children build a castle for party

WALLED Arts Centre is throwing one of the North-East's biggest half-term parties for over 100 local children this afternoon.

Safety council must pay for room

A SAFETY council will have to pay for a room for the council to meet in, it was decided by the council.

The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in. The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in.

Safety council must pay for room

A SAFETY council will have to pay for a room for the council to meet in, it was decided by the council.

The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in. The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in.

Safety council must pay for room

A SAFETY council will have to pay for a room for the council to meet in, it was decided by the council.

The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in. The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in.

Safety council must pay for room

A SAFETY council will have to pay for a room for the council to meet in, it was decided by the council.

The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in. The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in.

Safety council must pay for room

A SAFETY council will have to pay for a room for the council to meet in, it was decided by the council.

The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in. The council has decided to pay for a room for the council to meet in.

Safety council must pay for room

A SAFETY council will have to pay for a room for the council to meet in, it was decided by the council.